

Like all groups, both within and outside the church community, Sawston Mothers' Union is sad not to have been able to meet in person this spring. However, we continue to pray for one another and stay connected by telephone and email. If any members have thoughts on how we might keep in touch over the coming months or any requests, or indeed if you would just like to talk on the phone, please contact Janet Martin. (01223 835028).

The speakers who were going to visit us this spring are keen to be rebooked for the future and we look forward to welcoming them and to meeting together when times are more settled.

In the meantime, if you would like to learn more about the Teenage Cancer Trust, which was going to provide a speaker in April, do please visit their website: www.teenagecancertrust.org/

Anyone who would like to keep in touch with Mothers' Union at a diocesan level may visit the MU Ely Diocese Facebook page at www.facebook.com/MUElyDiocese/ and take a look at the resources on our page on the Ely Diocesan website: www.elydiocese.org/church-in-action/mothers-union/

Mothers' Union members can also stay connected by joining in with Midday Prayers and following many of the helpful resources available from the MU website: www.mothersunion.org/resources-support-us-challenging-times

Midday prayers are said live at 12 noon via the MU Facebook page and members join in all over the country and all around the world: www.facebook.com/MothersUnion/

Mary Richmond